Background

This competition aims to help preserve images and reminders of Louisville for this and future generations.

Eligibility

Louisville residents and non-residents alike are welcome to submit photos taken between September 8, 2015 and December 31, 2016. All entries must complete the application form and waivers on the following pages 3 and 4.

Deadline

The 2016 competition deadline is 4:00 PM on Friday, January 13, 2017.

Jury Criteria

A jury comprised of elected and appointed City officials and staff will evaluate all eligible submissions received by the deadline. Winning entries will be selected on the basis of the following criteria:

1. How well the photo captures "Life in Louisville." What makes someone think "Louisville" versus any other city or town?
2. Photographic quality;
3. Resolution of image; Files submitted may not be larger than 10MB. Photo contest images are judged on computer screens, which have a maximum resolution of 72dpi. When uploading an image, we prefer a minimum width of 2,000 pixels.
4. Classification of photographer (e.g. student, amateur, professional);
5. Category of subject matter. Please note that all entries will be categorized by the jury; Winners will be chosen within each category.

Awards

All entries will be added to the City's photo collection. Winners will receive a certificate and special recognition at a future City Council meeting. All photos will remain on public display on the City's website.

Please be advised: Entries may appear in City of Louisville publications and in various places such as the Public Library, the Historical Museum, the Recreation & Senior Center, the Arts Center, in print, on TV, and/or on the Internet. The City may also grant outside organizations use of the photographs for publication. The City will request photo credit to be given whenever possible.

2016 Photography Contest

Instructions and Requirements

Entries must be of subjects within or related to the City of Louisville and must have been taken between September 8, 2015 and December 31, 2016.

Entries should be appropriate for all ages to view.

Photographer must own all rights to any photographs entered in this competition.

Incomplete entries will not be included in the competition.

In order to maintain the integrity of the documentary nature of the images, photos should not be significantly altered; however, basic editing to compensate for technical quality may be made.

A limit of FIFTEEN black & white or color photos may be submitted for each competitor; however, each photo shall be entered under one photographer classification (e.g., student, amateur, professional).

Submission of an entry to the competition automatically constitutes the acceptance of all conditions set forth in these rules.

Photos may be submitted one of two ways:

By mail, please include:

A signed entry form for each photo submitted

A flash drive with the images, each photo to be labeled with the photographer's name and the same title as listed on the Entry Form and Photographic Materials Use Agreement. Please include a stamped, self-addressed envelope if you would like your flash drive returned.

A Photographic Materials Use Agreement that includes the titles of all photos being submitted

Mailed or delivered to:

2016 Photography Contest
PHOTOGRAPHIC MATERIALS USE AGREEMENT
(MULTIPLE SUBMISSIONS MAY BE LISTED ON THIS FORM)

This Photographic Materials Use Agreement (this "Agreement") is entered into by the City of Louisville (the "City"), and _____ ("Photographer") in order to set forth the terms and conditions under which the Photographer's photograph(s) will be entered in the "Life in Louisville" Photo Competition and all future related rights and uses.

The photographs ("Photographs") covered by this Agreement are titled: _____

_____ and copies of the Photographs are attached to this Agreement. Photographer represents and warrants at the time of submission that the Photographs are the sole property of the Photographer, and Photographer has the right to permit the Photographs to be used for the purposes stated in this Agreement.

Under this Agreement the parties mutually agree to the following conditions:

1. The City agrees to enter Photographer's Photographs in the Life in Louisville Competition. Thereafter, the Photographs may appear in City of Louisville publications displayed in various places such as print, TV, the Internet, and/or in City facilities, and may be given to outside organizations for publication ("After-Competition Uses"). The City will request, but cannot guarantee, photo credit for any image used.
2. The Photographer will provide the City with copies of the original digital files for use in the competition and any After-Competition Uses. Any image from the Photographs may be "cropped," or otherwise manipulated within the discretion of the City, to fit within the dimensions of any intended use or to serve other aesthetic purposes or practical necessities.
3. The City agrees to either (a) include Photographer's name in all Competition and After-Competition Uses that feature Photographer's photograph whenever commercially feasible, as determined by the City, or (b) have the Photographer's information readily available and associated with any After-Competition Uses in order that such can be immediately provided upon any inquiry.
4. The Photographer grants the City permission to publish his/her name with the Photographs.
5. The Photographer will retain ownership and copyright in submitted Photographs; however, the Photographer hereby grants to the City a royalty-free, perpetual license to use the Photographs for any lawful purpose, including without limitation commercial uses and the right to sublicense use of the Photographs.
6. All Photographs are sent at the Photographer's risk. The City shall have no liability for any loss of or damage to any Photographs entered into the competition (however caused) or for any other loss or damage resulting therefrom.
7. Photographer agrees that the right to participate in the Competition, together with the publicity and recognition obtained from use of the Photograph, in accordance with the terms and conditions contained herein, constitutes full and fair compensation and consideration for use of the Photographs and specifically disclaims any right to any other compensation or consideration.
